The Society for Ethnomusicology Southern Plains Chapter (SEM-SP) is pleased to announce the program for its second annual meeting, April 17-18, 2009 at the University of North Texas, Denton.

John Miller Chernoff, the innovative ethnographer, author/producer of African Rhythm and African Sensibility, Hustling is Not Stealing, films, and recordings, will deliver a keynote address. A pre-conference party will be hosted on Friday evening at the home of Dr. Steven Friedson. Paper presentations will be on Saturday, April 18. The conference will conclude with a UNT College of Music sponsored African Cultural Festival, led by Professor Gideon Alorwoyie. An after-party for SEM-SP will follow the festival.

Registration for the conference is set at $10 for students and $35 for non-students. The registration form and other local arrangements information can be accessed via the SEMSP website, http://katchie.com/semsouthernplains/Pages/SEMSP-conference.html, or by contacting the local arrangements chair Eileen Hayes (eileen.hayes@unt.edu).
